RUMANIA FAVORS ALLES; MAY OPEN WAY FOR TROOPS

GREECE NOT TO ASSIST TEUTONS

Legation at London Says Reports Started By German Press to Breed Hostility

KING GEORGE THROWN FROM HORSE, BRUISED

Confined to Bed But Injuries Not Serious; No Important Developments in Balkan or Other Arenas

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless]
ATHENS, Greece, Oct. 29.—The Hestia says today that it has learned from a diplomatic source that Rumania will accept the proposals of the Entente Powers and join them in war. It says it is probable that the Russians will take advantage of Rumania's friendship by traversing Rumania with men and munitions for the assistance of Serbia. The Entente Allies intend to satisfy Rumania's ambitions, as expressed in her demands, including the cessation of Bessarabia.

LONDON, England, Oct. 29.—The Greek legation here has issued a formal denial of rumors that Greece intends to join the Teutons. It is declared that German newspapers started the reports for the purpose of breeding hostility between Greece and the Entente Allies.

Gen. Joffre, the French commander-in-chief, is here conferring with Lord Kitchener on future plans of campaign.

LONDON, England, Oct. 29.—Great Britain has sustained some staggering war losses, according to figures made public today by Premier Asquith in a statement to the house of commons, in which he declared, however, that the utmost circumspection had been used in the fighting and that the enemy had paid dearly for the casualties inflicted on the Britons.

In the entire war to date 6660 officers have been killed, 12,633 wounded and 2000 are listed as missing, many of them being prisoners.

The number of men killed is 94,992, wounded 304,832, and missing 72,177.

BULGAR-TEUTON ARMIES ARE OVERRUNNING SERBIA

The following cablegram from official German sources was received today:
"German Army Headquarters Report, Oct. 29.—The general advance of the Teutons in Serbia continues. Near Drinsko, south of Visegrad, the enemy has been repulsed. Eastward the enemy has been pushed across the frontier. West of Moravine, Slatkoika, Rudnik, Cuckack and Batocica have been stormed. South-east of Svilagnic the enemy's position on both sides of Resava have been stormed. More than 1300 prisoners have been taken. Gen. Boyadef's Bulgarians are causing the enemy to retreat and pursuing the Serbs closely."

SHIBAHARA TAKES UP FOREIGN OFFICE WORK

[Special Cable to Hawaii Shipno]
TOKIO, Japan, Oct. 29.—The new vice-minister of Foreign Affairs, K. Shibahara, took possession of the office yesterday. He was former Japanese minister to Holland, and was recently appointed to the Foreign Affairs Department.

ITALIANS CONTINUING ATTACKS ON AUSTRIANS

LONDON, England, Oct. 29.—News from the Italo-Austrian front says that the Italians are continuing their attacks on the Austrians, the latter weakening.

Peace Now Not Favored By Britons Nor Teutons

That the British people are "not in a hurry for the war to end," and that they believe it will be two years more before the European struggle is over and they are victorious, was stated today by K. Okazaki, member of the Japanese parliament, who is returning to Japan today on the Tenyo Maru after five months passed in investigating war conditions in Great Britain and France.

"I found the better grade of people, especially the upper class, confident that the Allies will win ultimately," said Mr. Okazaki on board the ship this morning. "However, at the same time they are not in a hurry, and believe it will be two years more before the war ends."

The noted Japanese said neither the German nor the English nation wants President Wilson to attempt to exterminate the war.

GOVERNOR WILL AID DESERVING POOR IN HAWAII

Pressing Need in Certain Cases Brought to Attention of Chief Executive

CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME, HE REMINDS THE PEOPLE

Charity begins at home, and when it is needed at home should be there, believes Governor Pinkham. Recently a number of deserving cases brought to his attention, indicating lack of employment and real want, convinced him that some of the contributions for foreign needs might be kept at home to best advantage.

Accordingly, he has written the following letter:

Honolulu, Oct. 29, 1915.

Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin.

Sir: It is within my knowledge that there is a lack of employment and severe want among citizens and others who are wholly disinclined to apply for aid to charitable institutions or organizations. The necessities are beyond the means of the few who are trying to tide over this condition.

The governor will be thankful for any contributions placed in his hands and can assure the public of a proper accounting and will further assure THAT NO ONE AIDED WILL BE PERMITTED TO SUFFER IN HIS OWN SELF-RESPECT OR THAT OF HIS ASSOCIATES.

It is high time the people of this territory learned their duty to their home population and placed a corresponding restriction on their lavish contributions abroad that they may be able to perform their bountiful obligations to this territory.

Very respectfully,

LUCIUS E. PINKHAM,

Governor of Hawaii.

KING GEORGE BRUISED IN FALL FROM HORSE

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless]
LONDON, England, Oct. 29.—King George was thrown by his horse on Thursday while reviewing the troops in France with President Poincare and others it was learned today. The horse which he was riding became excited by the cheering and grew so unruly he could not keep his seat. He was so bruised as to be confined to his bed, but the injuries are not serious. His whereabouts in France are not given.

PRESSING CALL FOR MORE TROOPS FROM AUSTRALIA

MELBOURNE, Australia.—So pressing is the call for more troops for the operations at the Dardanelles that the Commonwealth government now proposes to furnish at least 16,000 men monthly and to systematize recruiting more thoroughly by means of cooperation from several states.

JAPAN ALSO BOUND BY PACT OF ENTENTE ALLIES

LONDON, England, Oct. 29.—Japan has become party to the Entente Powers' agreement that under no conditions may any of the powers conclude peace with the Teutons unless it is by the joint action of all.

Circuit Judge Whitney today signed an order allowing Anna Diana Carden, widow of the late John Joseph Carden, $750 a month pending the settlement of the estate.

WILSON TO OPEN FIGHT FOR REAL DEFENSE SCHEME

President Will Start Campaign By Speech Before Club in New York

NAVY SECOND ONLY TO ENGLAND'S BY 1922

By C. S. ALBERT.

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 18.—The program for the increased preparedness of the national defense has been whipped into final shape. The concluding touches were made by Secretaries Daniels and Garrison, outlining betterments for the army and navy. These were approved by President Wilson.

On November 4 the president will open a determined campaign to secure the adoption of his national defense program by Congress. He will on that date deliver a speech before the Manhattan Club of New York.

The program as arranged covers a period of six years. At the expiration of that time the United States is scheduled to have a navy second only to that of Great Britain, with an army of trained soldiers and instructed citizens of more than 1,000,000 men. Equipment by 1922.

It is believed here that there may be serious outbreaks when the revolutionary troops begin their march in this section, as the feeling is bitter between the Chinese and Japanese in that section of the country. Japan will strengthen all of her garrisons in China at once.

Although these figures are not yet available, nor fully determined, there will be proportionately liberal increases in the allowances for aeroplanes for the navy and army, sea-coast fortifications, mine laying apparatus and auxiliary naval vessels.

In advance of the end of the European war, it is safe to assume that if the defense plans of the administration are enacted into law this nation will have a fleet of ships that will be second only to that of Great Britain, long heralded as "the mistress of the seas."

It is impossible to forecast the naval strength two or three years hence of the European nations now at war. The actual strength of the navies of the belligerent powers is not known today, but the footing before the war began permits a fairly satisfactory comparison.

Great Britain's Navy.

Great Britain had 36 battleships of the first class built, building, and authorized at the outbreak of the war; Germany had 20. Great Britain had 40 battleships of the second class; Germany had 20. The United States has built, building, and authorized, 15

PREMIER QUILTS CHINESE POST; ORIENT STIRRED

Plan to Abrogate the Republic Brings Protest From Japanese Officials

JAPAN IS ORDERING MORE TROOPS INTO PROVINCES

Threat of Armed Force May Again Cause Peking to Knuckle Under

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless]
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 29.—Premier Hsu Shih Chang has resigned, according to an official telegram from Peking. It is believed that he is out of sympathy with the plan for a monarchy in China.

PEKING, China, Oct. 29.—H. Obata, charge d'affaires of the Japanese legation here, has suggested at a conference with Foreign Minister Hsing that China delay making a change to the monarchical form of government, to prevent international disturbances, such as would occur at the present time. The British and Russian ministers were present at the conference and acted jointly with the Japanese diplomat.

TOKIO, Japan, Oct. 29.—Formal announcement is made of the visit of Mr. Obata to the Chinese foreign minister in Peking. It is said that there is a strong undercurrent of opposition among the Chinese to the proposal that the government shall be changed to a monarchy.

(Special Cable to Nippon Jiji.)

TOKIO, Japan, Oct. 29.—From various points along the Yangtze Kiang river come alarming reports of trouble between Chinese and Japanese merchants. There is a number of Japanese citizens in Hankow and vicinity and on many occasions there have been serious outbreaks in that section, many Japanese being killed and injured. It is thought here that the dissemination is the outgrowth of the 21 demands made upon China by Japan.

The Japanese government decided today to dispatch troops to strengthen the garrisons in that section, and to safeguard the interests of the Japanese along the Yangtze Kiang.

It is believed here that there may be serious outbreaks when the revolutionary troops begin their march in this section, as the feeling is bitter between the Chinese and Japanese in that section of the country. Japan will strengthen all of her garrisons in China at once.

PROFESSOR GETS TITLE

TOKIO, Japan, Oct. 29.—Dr. C. Hazumi, professor in the Japanese Imperial University at Tokio, will be given the title of baron on November 10 at the coronation ceremonies in Kyoto.

K BOATS FOLLOW F FLOTILLA OUT TO SAY FAREWELL

Convoys out to the open sea by the K flotilla, the F-1, F-2 and F-3 bade goodby to Honolulu this morning and were towed away toward Hilo by the Maryland, Nanshan and Iroquois, on the first stage of their voyage to San Francisco.

Just before the "fleet" steamed away from the harbor entrance, about 9:30, the unusual sight of seven submarines assembled as if to protect this port against entrance by a foreign foe, was witnessed.

Drawn up, apparently in line, the K-3, K-4, K-7 and K-8, their crews grouped together on deck, saluted their comrades and wished them a good voyage, while the F flotilla, a few hundred yards away, rolling in the seaway swell, responded to the greeting.

Shortly after 8 o'clock, the engines of the F flotilla were started at the navy pier and the submarines moved sluggishly over to a point opposite the end of Fort Street, where they waited for orders to start out to sea.

Nanshan Went First.

Some time before this the auxiliary Nanshan left her dock at Pier 6 and moved out to the open sea, anchoring near the refugee German steamer Hol-satia until the submarines should arrive.

Exactly at 8:30 o'clock, the armored cruiser Maryland blew three blasts from her sirens and wig-wag orders to start were given the F flotilla.

Leading the procession down the channel was the F-3, the flagship of Lieut. K. B. Crittenden, commander of the first submarine division. She flew the commander's pennant. She chugged slowly down the channel, like a great gray-colored whale, her crew,

SAYS GANGSTERS PULLED OFF DOPE DEAL FROM JAIL

Gough Tells How McGrath and Bower, in Prison Hospital, Turned Easy Trick

SHERIFF AND JAILERS SUMMONED TO TESTIFY

Grand Jury Going Thoroughly Into Allegations of Laxity

The territorial grand jury went into session at 2 o'clock this afternoon for further investigation of the alleged county jail scandal which culminated in the escape of Jack McGrath on April 30 last. The stories told by men just released from jail, who say they did not dare speak before, are under rigid probe.

Nine persons were summoned to appear as witnesses before the grand jury this afternoon. They are Sheriff Charles H. Rose, Deputy Sheriff Julius W. Asch, Deputy Jailor W. K. Punohu, "Bob" Ingersoll, said to be a former bartender; Police Officer Paletapa Likelilo and Wil-liam F. Legros and Joseph H. Lil.

The latter were guards at the city and county jail at the time of McGrath's escape. It is said, also, summoned were R. O. Matheson and former Judge A. S. Humphreys.

City Attorney Brown said today that, owing to the seriousness of the investigation, no report of the proceedings will probably be returned today. The next meeting of the grand jury probably will be held next Thursday afternoon.

Guarding at the county jail has been so lax under Jailer Fern and Deputy Punohu that the "badger-gang" gangsters a few months ago were able to leave the jail and "pull off an opium trick," according to Fred W. Gough, the ex-prisoner whose story has stirred up a genuine sensation and led to a grand jury investigation.

The story of this little deal in opium, alleged to have been made when the prisoners were supposed to be closely confined, is one of the most startling features of his long recital of conditions at the jail declared to have been scandalous.

The special liberties said to have been allowed the McGrath-Boggs, Bower-Seully gang, combined with the generally lax discipline which several witnesses testify was chronic at the institution, are claimed to have made it possible for Jack McGrath and G. A. ("Bert") Bower to put over the opium deal with ease, despatch and considerable profit.

The deal was arranged with the subject chosen by Prof. J. F. Rock for his lecture this evening to be given at the University Club under the auspices of the Outdoor Circle. There is to be no admission charge and each lady may bring an escort. Mr. Rock has a number of beautiful pictures which will add to the interest of the lecture.

Bids on the Waiolama reclamation fill will be opened in the office of the superintendent of public works at noon

ARIZONA BORDER BATTLE IS IMPENDING; U. S. INFANTRY SUFFERS REPEATED ATTACKS

ROVING BANDITS FIRE ACROSS LINE AND EVEN MAKE ASSAULTS—GEN. FUNSTON MASSES MEN TO PREVENT VILLA TROOPS FROM ASSAILING DOUGLAS IN COURSE OF FIGHT WITH CARRANZISTAS

[Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless]

DOUGLAS, ARIZ., Oct. 29.—A situation giving grave concern to the United States authorities is rapidly developing here and in the other half of the town, Agua Prieta, which is on the Mexican side. The impending battle between the Villa and Carranza troops is feared will result in grave violation of American neutrality and possible injury and death from flying bullets and machine-gun shells on the American side.

Under the orders of Gen. Funston, 6000 American troops are ready to keep the battling Mexicans from crossing the border and to prevent the firing from hazardous life or property here. The American troops have 16 guns.

Up until a few hours ago the Villa forces, which are moving up to attack the entrenched Carranzistas, outnumbered Carranza's men heavily. Since then additional artillery and 5000 Carranza soldiers have arrived and are reinforcing Gen. Calles, the Carranza commander, who previously had about 3000 men. The Carranzistas have built defenses on the outskirts of Agua Prieta.

The Villa forces have not yet been sighted but scouts report their approach and they are expected at any hour.

Gen. Thomas Davis is commanding the American troops. Gen. Funston is expected within a short time.

Outlaw Bands Attack U. S. Infantry

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, Oct. 29.—Within the last few hours raiding bands of outlaws have twice attacked a half-company of American infantrymen stationed at Capote, on the border 65 miles north of this town. No casualties are reported. The U. S. soldiers fired on the bands and they were easily repulsed. In expectation that the attacks may be repeated with larger forces, reinforcements have been sent by the American commanders.

Situation More Critical For Americans

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Oct. 29.—Carlos Randall, the governor of Sonora under the Villa regime, is reported to have issued a proclamation that since the United States has recognized Carranza, the Villa authorities will no longer be responsible for the safety of American lives in such parts of Mexico as are held by the Villistas. There are 30 Americans at Cananea and 18 at El Tigre, some of whom already are imprisoned by Villa authorities. It is believed that the situation is critical for them, owing to the hatred of the Villistas for Americans since Carranza has been favored.

Yaqui Chief Wants $25,000

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Oct. 29.—G. Urbaljo, a chief of the Yaquis and at the head of a large number of guerilla bands, has demanded $25,000 cash from Espes Randolph, the president of the Southern Pacific lines in Mexico, declaring that unless the money was forthcoming he would destroy property. The time set for delivering the coin expired yesterday evening. It is not known here whether the threat to destroy railroad property was fulfilled. Randolph refused to pay the money.

A copy of the Great Northern's schedule arrived this morning, addressed to Fred L. Waldron, and sent by the traffic department of the Great Northern Pacific Steamship Company.
